

ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
PROCEDURE FOR EVALUATION AND MAINTENANCE OF

LIST I-7

PORTLAND CEMENT CONCRETE PRODUCERS

1. Material: Portland Cement Concrete removed from this list for failure to comply with procedures BMTP-170 or BMTP-352.
2. Specification: Section 450 and Section 501
3. Jurisdiction: Product Evaluation Board (Concrete Engineer)
4. Job Acceptance Requirements: See appropriate sections of the Department Testing Manual procedures (BMTP-170 & BMTP-352)
5. Materials and Tests Engineer's Responsibility: The Materials and Tests Engineer in conjunction with the Division Engineer will be responsible for inspection as required in procedures BMTP-170 and BMTP-352.
6. Producer's Initial Requirements: Persons wishing to have sources evaluated should furnish the Product Evaluation Board with the following:
  - 6.1 Name and address of the Concrete Plant, including the sales and technical representative or contact person at the plant.
  - 6.2 Location and phone number of the plant.
  - 6.3 Names of plant's certified personnel w/certification numbers.
  - 6.4 Current NRMCA Certification.
  - 6.5 Specify the plant classification desired (either "A" or "B")
  - 6.6 Read and follow the instructions outlined in procedures BMTP-170 and BMTP-352.
  - 6.7 Submittal and testing fees in accordance with procedure BMTP-355.
7. Producer's Maintenance Requirements: The producer of the material will be required to carry out the instructions of procedures BMTP-170 and BMTP-352.
8. Laboratory Requirements: No initial laboratory tests are required. Plants will be inspected for compliance with procedures BMTP-170 and BMTP-352.
9. Contractor's Requirements: The prime contractor will be responsible for assuring that procedures BMTP-170 and BMTP-352 are complied with.
10. Removal of Products: Products will be
11. Correspondence: Submittals for initial evaluation or updates should be mailed to the following:

Product Evaluation Board
Alabama Department of Transportation
3704 Fairground Road
Montgomery, AL 36110